OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the workshop is to give an opportunity to scientists and post-graduate students to present the results of their recent research on the East China Sea and to exchange ideas and share their experience regarding the environment and fisheries activities in the ECS. In the 2007 ECS Workshop, we are planning to have one or two Topic Sessions focusing on some hot issues relating to the ECS. Also planned is a special session to exchange information on Educational Systems in oceanography and fisheries science in each country.

PROGRAM (Tentative)

Nov. 3 Morning: Registration, Overviews of the Workshop and Topic Sessions

Nov. 3 Afternoon: General Session

Nov. 4 Morning: Topic Session 1•2

Nov. 4 Afternoon: Education Session

Nov. 5: Excursion

Poster Session will be held on November 3 and 4 with core time of 1 hour for each day.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Participants interested in making a presentation on their recent research are cordially invited to submit a paper according to the following instructions. Papers will be presented in either oral or poster sessions.

REGISTRATION

The authors who will make presentations are requested to register in advance by September 30, 2007, using the attached registration form. If you should have any inquiries concerning submissions, please contact the Secretariat.

The abstract should contain title of the presentation, names of authors, affiliation, e-mail address of the presenter, the abstract text and three keywords. All abstracts should be made following the attached example (font type, size etc). No pictures or graphs should be included in the abstract.

File name must consist of the presenter's name, underscore (_) and either orl (for oral presentation) or pst (for poster). Please make sure to include the proper extension in your file name ".pdf".

Example: Ishimatsu_orl.pdf (oral), Ishimatsu_pst.pdf (poster)

*If you have difficulty in converting to a PDF file, please contact the Secretariat.

Extended Abstract

Submission All extended abstracts must be submitted electronically to the website of the Workshop (in preparation). All authors of oral presentation must submit one extended abstract.

Format Prepare an extended abstract of A4 size paper (4-5 pages) in MS Word (not PDF) format. The extended abstract should contain title of the presentation, names of authors, the abstract text and three keywords. All extended abstracts should be made using the template which you can find on the website (in preparation).

Full Paper manuscript for submission to the Journal of Oceanography

The local committee of the 2007 ECS Workshop decided to submit selected papers to Journal of Oceanography. The Journal of Oceanography (JO) is one of ISI journals with the impact factor of 1.060 (2006), edited by the Oceanographic Society of Japan. Its scope encompasses a wide range of issues relating to the oceans. The local committee wishes to publish five to eight papers in JO to make a special section for the Workshop. Those who wish to submit their manuscripts to JO are requested to state their interest at the time of abstract submission (by September 30, 2007).

Submission Interested authors are encouraged to contact the Secretariat for submission. In order to process manuscripts according to publication schedule of the special section, the local committee will set several deadlines.

Format Please refer to the journal homepage.
